ARMY BILL WILL RESULT IN MANY PROMOTIONS

President Will Be Able to Help the Eagles of Fourteen Colonels Soar into the Stars.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says that at least twenty-five regiments will be commanded by new colonels as a result of the reorganization of the army proposed by the pending legislation in Congress. This will mean promotion of lieutenant colonels in three arms of the service.

The bill passed by the House and that reported by the Senate military committee provide for an increase of five regiments of cavalry and five regiments of infantry, and the artillery arm under the Senate bill is also increased five regiments. This means the appointment of these officers in command of the new regiments:

Cavalry—Lieutenant Colonels A. B. Wells, Ninth cavalry, now serving in the Philippines; T. J. Wint, Sixth cavalry, also on duty in the Philippines; F. Moore, Tenth cavalry, stationed in Manila, Cuba; H. W. Wessels, Jr., Third cavalry, in the Philippines, and J. N. Wheeler, Seventh cavalry, military attaché at The Hague.

Artillery—Lieutenant Colonels A. G. Smith, Sixth artillery, stationed at the Washington, D. C., military arsenal; G. B. Rodney, Fifth artillery, Fort Riley, Kansas; C. A. Woodruff, Seventh artillery, Fort Slocum, New York; D. H. Kinze, First artillery, Fort Barrancas, Florida; and J. R. Myrick, Second artillery, Fort Monroe, Virginia.

Infantry—Lieutenant Colonels P. H. Ellis, Eighth infantry, William M. Van Horn, Eighteenth infantry, now on sick leave; M. Hooton, Fifth infantry, Fort Sheridan; G. Williams, Fifteenth infantry, and A. W. Corliss, Second infantry, in the Philippines.

President McKinley will make fourteen appointments of officers as brigadier generals, but their distribution among the several arms has not been determined. Most of these appointments will go to colonels of the line, so that at least ten lieutenant colonels in addition to those named above may be promoted. It seems reasonably certain that Colonels S. Sumner, Sixth cavalry, serving in the Philippines, and A. R. Chaffee, serving as major general of volunteers in command of the American legation guard in Peking, will be selected for promotion which will cause the commissioning as colonels of Lieutenant Colonels E. M. Hays, Fourth cavalry, and T. C. Lebo, First cavalry.

Among the infantry officers believed to have been practically selected for appointment as brigadier generals are Colonels J. C. Bates, Second infantry; R. H. Hall, Fourth infantry; L. W. Wheaton, Seventh infantry, and G. W. Davis, Twenty-third infantry, who are holding commissions as major general and brigadier general of volunteers. Their promotion will promote Lieutenant Colonels R. I. Eskridge, Twenty-third infantry; S. P. Jockey, Twenty-fifth infantry; C. Keller, Twenty-second infantry, and W. F. Spurgin, Sixteenth infantry.

ON CERTAIN SUNDAY CONCERTS

An appeal to Caesar, in the persons of the legislature not yet convened, is the only alternative presented the Sunday concert managers. The matter of making a charge seems not to be illegal only the amusement. It seems somewhat curious, or elastic, at the amusement when free in legal when charged for illegal, but then that is the only solution by which the Government band can consistently play on Sundays.

In Denver, Colorado, there is a certain high dignitary of the church who has perpetually run afoul of the public desire for Sunday evening amusement. He was at one time on the point of obtaining an injunction against Peter McCourt, the proprietor of the Tabernacle Opera House and controller of the Western Circuit, to prohibit him from giving the first of the celebrated Stark concerts.

The church dignitary was in the habit of cutting his homily short on Sunday evenings and giving with his justly celebrated choir, a series of oratorios. The plate was held at the doors on entering and notices were published that all attending were expected to contribute at least ten cents. Mr. McCourt wrote the Dean, never mind his name, telling him in plain and somewhat forcible language that if he, the Dean, closed his, McCourt's, show he would close the performance at the cathedral. Both entertainments are still running weekly.

The program for to-night at the Orpheum reads excellently. The gems of the evening should be the Hungarian Lustspiel and the string quartette. The four should produce excellent music. Semiramide has been revived from last week by request and deservedly. Mr. Kurkamp has a vocal number and in the act Mrs. Cohen's really fine contralto should blend musically with his tenor. These Sunday concerts are a most agreeable feature to many. Better music it would be hard to secure. Those who drop in for a while this evening should however retire with discrimination and the wholesale trouping out during the last number is greatly to be deplored.

It is possible that this will be the last of the Sunday concerts for a while as it is hardly likely the management will continue to pay for the lights, ushers and extra orchestra salaries out of pure philanthropy toward the music lovers of the city unless the folks who come Sundays would be as generous in their attendance on week days. There is a good crowd going to-night and the management is busy handling them up to to-day would do well to telephone, although the box office will be open for their accommodation this evening.

THE OLD PLAY GOER.

SUNDAY SERVICE.

Train service has been greatly improved upon the Electric Railway during the past week, and a pleasant ride, with no overcrowding of cars or long waits between trains, is promised. Regular trips will be made every twenty minutes, and a free bus will run between Nuuanu street and Railway Station between 9 a.m. and 9:30 p.m. Passengers are requested to secure round trip tickets before entering the cars.

News of the Town.

Henry Cobb Adams, principal of the Kaneohe school, was in the city yesterday.

Among the passengers returning in the Kinau last evening were E. E. Paxton, Gen. A. S. Hartwell and W. O. Smith.

Mrs. G. W. R. King, who has been on a trip to the coast, returned on the bark Nihet yesterday much improved in health.

The Honolulu Market Co. and the Metropolitan Meat Co. will close on New Year's day, Tuesday, January 1st, 1901, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Miss Ivy Richardson of Hilo, who has been in Europe for the past two years, is expected home on the Zealandia.

Burnette & Decker have dissolved partnership by mutual consent. P. H. Burnette will carry on the business alone. See notice.

The Young Men's Christian Association was disappointed in not receiving the New Year's address from Governor Roosevelt which has been sent them.

The concert at Emma Square yesterday afternoon by the Hawaiian band drew a large crowd. Kappelmester Berger's musicians, sustained three well earned reputations as entertainers par excellence.

Rev. A. E. Cory's subject at the 11 a.m. service at the Christian church today will be "Some Special Purposes of Prayer." This evening at 7:30 he will speak on "A Judge and Twelve Jurors."

Union services will be held this evening at Kaunakapili church, Kapalama. The Young People's Society and the congregation from Kawaiahao church will join in listening to Miss Cassatt of Australia, who is on her way home from Scotland.

The Woman's Guild of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will meet to-morrow at 2:30 p.m. E. H. Shanks will address the young men at the Y. M. C. A. hall this afternoon, subject: "Our Plans for the New Year."

A suit for $3,000 damages for alleged forcible ejection has been filed against Young Tong by Laura K. Hualani. Both parties reside in Wai'alua. The ejection took place in Wai'alua from a piece of land to which plaintiff claims to have a lease.

Henry Smith, as administrator in the estate of the late Captain Harry English, has filed his report and final account in the circuit court. The valuations found in taking up the administrative duties consisted of cash in the hands of Bruce Cartwright, to the amount for $539.41, and the final accounting shows the estate to be valued at $501.91, while $31.50 was expended by the administrator.

Kodak Finishing.

In the short time they have been in the business, King Bros. have earned an enviable reputation in the finishing of kodak work.

To Mr. Cal Melvin, who has charge of this department, is due the credit of this success on account of his skill and careful attention to every detail.

It makes all the difference in the world whether care is taken to print a negative according to its merits or not. Many good films are lost through carelessness.

To be sure, it takes a little longer to be careful, but it is time well expended in view of the result.

The best results are obtained when Mr. Melvin develops as well as prints your films.

are just as unique as this cut. Just think of a 20 payment life policy guaranteed paid-up in 15 years, or of a 15 payment policy guaranteed paid-up in 12 years. This guarantee is backed by $20,000,000 more than the security given by any other life insurance company. Policy provides increasing insurance yearly as well as liberal loans and surrender value either in cash or paid-up insurance. It provides also for automatic extended insurance; in other words, more insurance for the same money, or the same insurance for less money than given by any other company on earth.
